

Public Health Emergency Preparedness & Response Specialist

Public Health Emergency Preparedness & Response Specialist, Salary $38,105.60, with full benefit package. This position requires a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in Biology, Public Health or Environmental Health with a minimum of 30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours in physical and/or biological sciences, or a Bachelor's degree in related Emergency Preparedness field, or current Illinois license as a Registered Nurse. Responsible for meeting the grant requirements of the Emergency Preparedness grant, coordinates the LaSalle County Medical Reserve Corps and provides assistance in communicable disease investigation. Submit resume by August 3, 2018, to Chris Pozzi, Director of Environmental Health, LaSalle County Health Department, 717 E Etna Road, Ottawa, IL 61350 or email to cpozzi@lasallecounty.org.