

Director of Environmental Health

The Lee County Health Department seeks a full-time supervisor for our Environmental Health division. This individual will coordinate and direct work in our Environmental Health programs including food, wells and septics; and serve as a member of the department's management team. Bachelor of Science degree and at least 2 years' experience in the field of Environmental Health in the public or private sector required. Must be a Licensed Environmental Health Practitioner. Must be able to interpret laws, rules and regulations and local codes and ordinances. Excellent interpersonal and oral & written communication skills needed. Supervisory experience a plus. Send resume' to:

Administrator
Lee County Health Department
309 S. Galena Ave., Suite 100
Dixon, IL 61021

or contactus@lchd.com

Applications accepted through June 25, 2021.